2. Terms of participation, Technical-Safety regulations

All foreign and domestic participants are obliged to maintain the principles contained within them.

Article I

Event Organizer

PROGRES PARTNERS ADVERTISING, Co. Ltd., Opletalova 55, CZ - 11000 Prague 1

PRAGUE FASHION WEEK, Co. Ltd., Opletalova 55, CZ - 11000 Prague 1

(hereinafter the "Organizer")

Article II

Applications and site allocation

1) Application for the participation is binding for the exhibitor.

Organizer decides about the application acceptance, shortening or refusal without being obliged to explain his decision.

2) The certificate of the final site allocation is provided by Organizer simultaneously with the invoice of the site location. The rent must be reimbursed by the date given in the invoice. The reimbursement of the whole rent is a condition of the exhibition site delivery to the Exhibitor before the installation opening.

3) In case the rent is not reimbursed by the Exhibitor by the date given in the invoice, this delay is regarded as an important breach of contract and the Organizer has right to resign from the Contract. In this case the organizer does not refund the registration fee.

4) The Exhibitor undertakes to observe the obligation resulting from his and his co-exhibitors' participation or the participation of the companies entrusted by him to provide the construction of the stalls or the exhibits supply. The possible change is a subject to prior approval by the Organizer.

5) The Organizer reserves the right to change - as an exception - the location or size of the exhibition area even after it has been assigned to an exhibitor.

6) The price for an area in the application form includes the renting of the area, the services associated therewith (heating, lighting of the hall etc.) and promotion of event.

Article III

Rent and exhibition sites

1) The rent of exhibition sites is always listed in the application form or in the Organizer's letter. Each started meter is charged as a total. The smallest allocated area is 9 sqm.

2) The allocated exhibition site must not be conveyed by the Exhibitor to the third party without prior approval of the Organizer.

3) If the Exhibitor cancels his participation in the fair, his registration fee is not returned. If cancellation is made by the exhibitor after the assignment of exhibition space, the exhibitor will be charged a cancellation fee in the amount of 100 % of the rent. The exhibitor is required to remit this amount immediately.

Article IV

Terms of payment

The Exhibitor undertakes to pay to the Organizer all the provided performances by the date of the invoice maturity.

Article V

Exhibits

1) "Exhibit" means a product, goods or intangible right being obligatorily registered and exhibited on the site assessed by the Organizer and accordant with the nomenclature of the action.

2) It is forbidden to list the prices of the exhibits. The Exhibitor must secure the exhibits against the robbery.

3) The transport of the goods (exhibits) out and in is provided according to the directions of the Organizer.

Manipulation and warehouse charges are charged for the exhibits and installation material that has not been removed by the final term of the site location.

4) The reception of the products and goods (exhibits) is provided exclusively by the Exhibitor. In case the Exhibitor nor his representative are not present, the exhibit shall be unloaded at the allocated site at the risk of the Exhibitor. It is not allowed to transport the exhibits away during the event.

Article VI

Expositions construction and installation, exhibits assembly

1) The terms of the installation, dismantling and operation time is determined by the Organizer. The exception from the term is provided by the Convener on the Exhibitor's or his assignee's request. The Exhibitor or his assignee shall reimburse the costs resulting from the above mentioned.

Technical-safety precautions and Organizer's Organisation instructions are binding for the Exhibitor during the construction of the exposition. In case these are not observed the Organizer has right to forbid the running of the stands.

2) The official Contractor for the expositions construction is Progres Partners Advertising, Co. Ltd. When realizing an exhibit through unofficial contractors, the exhibitor is fully responsible for his activities on the presenter's premises, and particularly is to secure work safety and to abide by the schedule for the assembly and disassembly of exhibits. These terms are included in the Organizer's Organisation instructions.

3) Wall hydrants, fire extinguishers and other devices assuring the security must not be overbuilt. Any interference to the pavilions or vacant areas are strictly forbidden.

4) The maximum height of the expositions is 3 meters. The exceptions must be approved by the Organizer.

5) In case the Exhibitor exceeds with his expositions the height of 3 meters is obliged to provide to the Organizer (enough in advance) before the installation the technical project in the ground-plan and front view for the approval. He must demonstrate this approval at the receipt of the allocated exhibition site. Architectural form and running of the exposition must not interfere with the function of neighbouring expositions. The area of the rented area must not be exceeded even above the ceiling construction. For stands with more than one storey it is necessary to present a stress analysis calculation along with the project.

6) The Exhibitor is obliged to order at the Organizer the water, electric and telecommunication supplies.

7) The Exhibitor is responsible for all devices loaned by the Organizer and is obliged to render these undamaged after the event termination.

8) Every damage of the exhibition site and Organizer's devices and Exhibition Centre must be rendered by the Exhibitor to the original state on his own costs or reimbursed.

9) The Exhibitor must not eliminate the exposition before the termination of the event.

10) During the dismantling of the stands, the exhibitor (implementing firm) is liable to ensure that all material (wood, chipboard, carpets etc.) is removed from the grounds of the Exhibition Ground. It is only possible to put small-scale waste in the rubbish bins. The organizer can ensure the disposal of unwanted materials from stands upon request for a fee.

Article VII

Promotion, advertising, logos and catalogue

1) The Exhibitor has right to promote his products only within his own exposition.

2) All manners of exhibiting at his own exhibition site or elsewhere (for example the machines at work, movies, music productions, fashion shows, etc.) must be approved by the Organizer who has right to limit (even after previous approval) or forbid the demonstrations producing noise, dustiness, shaking or otherwise limits or interferes to the fair running. The acoustic advertisements may be used only after the previous written approval by the Organizer. It is strictly forbidden to transport the displays, distribute the leaflets, stick promotional and information materials outside the exhibition site (on the windows, walls, floors or columns of pavilions). The Organizer has right to eliminate at the costs of Exhibitor all promotional materials that does not suit the above listed conditions.

3) The Exhibitor has right to be listed in the fair catalogue released by the Organizer. He may indicate there his address and 10 expressions for the nomenclature listed in his application. Any further presentation must be reimbursed.

Article VIII

Insurance

The Organizer is not responsible for the lost, demolition or any damage of exhibits, equipment, stand, goods, packages and packaging materials belonging to the Exhibitor or his co-exhibitors, irrespective of whether this damage appeared before, during or after the fair. The exhibitor shall take out insurance for this purpose.

Article IX

Final arrangements

1) In case the Organizer is not able to start the fair, to provide the running of the event in its whole duration or in its part at the whole area of the Exhibition Centre or its part because of the uncaused circumstances ("vis major"), he must immediately inform the Exhibitor. All obligations resulting from the contract about the Exhibitor's participation expire. In the case the Exhibitor has no right for the damage compensation. The Organizer has right to retain an appropriate part of the payments reimbursed by that time by the Exhibitor.

2) The Exhibitor may put in a claim for the works and services provided by the event Organizer at the responsible employee. This must be done within 48 hours before the termination of the fair, otherwise this right expires.

3) If not determined otherwise, the Organizer has right in case of the violation of any of the above listed stipulations to exclude the Exhibitor from the participation at the fair or other event.

In this case the Exhibitor has no right to the compensation of possible damages and to the refund of the paid rent.
